Headline Act

Andy Askins is a first class, guitar-wielding comedian with a captivating voice and wickedly dry sense of humour. Andy has an expertly crafted routine littered with an eclectic mix of off beat comic songs and parodies. Popular songs have been rewritten and given a perverse twist to tremendous comic effect. With impeccable timing, his inventive and quirky songs are peppered with inspired patter and the darker material is sweetened by his impish demeanour.

As seen on The John Bishop Show – BBC1”

Dark humour with faultless timing” – The Stage

“An awful lot of charm” – Chortle

Comperere

Danny Ward's observational humour is up-beat and well honed and his manic style both endearing and very funny. With a high energy set and brilliantly well observed material covering everything from the randomness of the Lidl, to how to get the 'London Look' the gags keep coming.

“Slick, quick and packed with funny material”
ThreeWeeks

“Tight on gags and tongue twisting set pieces”
Huffington Post

Glenn Moore was a finalist in So You Think You're Funny? and a runner-up in the Chortle Student Comedy Awards within his first 10 gigs. Since then, he's regularly performed across the UK, for the likes of Jongleurs and Komedia and in September 2017 made his Mock The Week debut for the BBC.

“...tipped for great things” – GQ Magazine

“Relentlessly silly and gag-laden – a potential comedy great” – The List

Nick Elleray is a laconic Australian who hates the term 'deadpan' because it trivialises his condition of being terminally unexpressive, he speaks about being a middle-aged sad-sack, still stuck in shared accommodation at 48, his co-writers are misery, anguish and grief. Winner Old Comedian of the Year 2017.

"An engaging stand-up with an inventive mind" - The List

"An under-appreciated purveyor of quality downbeat comedy. Nick Elleray is a classy act" - Steve Bennett, Chortle

Comedy Night
 in aid of
Platt Primary School PTA
Licensed Bar
